MRS. JONAS TO SHOW

When the Sunset Chapter of the American Hibiscus Society holds its annual flower show at the First Federal Savings & Loan Association of St. Petersburg, 800 - 49th Street North, - Ethel M. Jonas, a member of the Sunset Chapter, Will hold a "one woman" exhibit of artistic IKEBANA flower arrangements. Styles of several Japanese schools will be shown.

Mrs. Jonas is a founder and organizer of Ikebana International, St. Petersburg, Florida, Chapter #65, which was chartered by Tokyo, Japan, in September 1962. She is a student of Idenobo and Koryu schools, which are classical styles, and is Professor Fourth Grade of Sogetsu School, and Instructor of Ichiyo School, which are modern styles.

Mrs. Jonas has traveled to Hawaii, Japan and Hong Kong and has had four Japanese ikebana teachers and two American ikebana teachers. The Sogetsu School awarded her the Flower Name of KO SHUN (meaning scarlet spring). She also is a Master Accredited Flower Show Judge of National Council State Garden Clubs, Inc., as of 1960, the first year such honors were awarded. She has taught flower arrangement for several years.

A special invitation is extended to everyone to visit the Sunset Chapter flower show in October. Mark calendars now for October 20th.

"Excuse me, sir, my wife wants me to ask you, sir. You see, I've been here for 30 years and I've never asked for a raise." "That's true. And that's why you've been here for 30 years."

"I prefer that John play golf rather than go fishing," said one wife to another, "at least golf balls don't smell up the house."
